

Dear Friend,

I nearly cried tears of joy when I heard Donald Trump's inaugural statement in 2017.

He said:

"For too long, a small group in our nation's capital has reaped the rewards of government, while the people have borne the cost. Washington flourished, but the people did not share in its wealth. Politicians prospered, but the jobs left and the factories closed. The establishment protected itself, but not the citizens of our country. Their victories have not been your victories. Their triumphs have not been your triumphs, and while they celebrated in our nation's capital, there was little to celebrate for struggling families all across our land. That all changes, starting right here and right now, because this moment is your moment --- it belongs to you. It belongs to everyone gathered here today, and everyone watching, all across America. This is your day. This is your celebration, and this, the United States of America, is your country."

I am going to vote for Donald Trump for President in 2024.

But I have seen enough of Trump's staff making HORRIFIC recommendations leading to CATOSTROPHIC results that while I will vote for him, I do not trust his endorsements.

Endorsements like:

Mike Pence

Anthony Fauci

Kevin McCarthy

William Barr

Matt DePerno

Peter Hoekstra

Jenna Ellis

Nikki Haley

Chris Christie

Having heard Trump's inaugural address, it was always so perplexing to me when he would then nominate and appoint deep state insiders that are hardwired into the anti American pro globalist political landscape. I don't believe Donald Trump has been compromised, as much as I believe that one man can only do so much and he has to rely on advisors. And he has some real stinkers that are using his position for personal profit and glory.

Trump's endorsement track record in Michigan has been especially abysmal. And lately he seems to be getting worse at it.

Take the example of Ed McBroom, the Republican Michigan State Senator that said Joe Biden won the election fairly and there was no problem with the vote in Michigan in 2020.

It is curious that Trump now calls Ed McBroom a "Great Senator" after previously blasting Ed McBroom as a "RINO" that was "doing everything possible to stop voter audits in order to hide the truth about November 3rd" and accused McBroom of being a Democrat that listed himself as Republican as there is no way he could get elected in northern Michigan otherwise.

Peter Hoekstra and Ed McBroom represent the type of Republican that has a PROVEN history of betraying the America First movement. Hoekstra and McBroom represent everything that Trump stands against. Yet so did Pence, Fauci, Barr and so many others.

It is perfectly acceptable to support Donald Trump for President but refuse to follow his staff's recommendations of McBroom or Hoekstra. Thinking for yourself is a good thing.
