OP-ED: How's decades of staged-opposition and moral relativism worked for you?

The greatest blessings in life require consistent maintenance. The blessings of liberty and our usable God-given rights are no different. Resting on the laurels of our founding fathers, will not save our nation.

We cannot act as if the GOP has not been infiltrated by the same humanist cult devotees that have infiltrated the Democrat Party and other spheres of power and influence. We see that the GOP is being deliberately moved away from constitutional original intent and moral absolutes, by those sabotaging America by deconstructing the GOP from inside-out. The existing GOP platform correctly states "We are the party of the constitution." The GOP exists to elect candidates using the constitution as their measure for internal party accountability, electability, and governing. Electing candidates without that measure continues the nation-destroying pattern caused by decades of GOP infiltrators. An ongoing pattern of electing Republican impostors and unwitting pawns who destroy America slower than their Democrat and media co-conspirators. Republican impostors exposed by their nation destroying levels of constitutional deconstructionism and godless rationale, like sacrificing millions of unborn lives using the pretense of 'it being required to win elections.'

As if placing the GOP in direct conflict with God who makes and breaks nations could ever result in anything but national ruin.

As we should expect from proficient enemies of God and country, they have infiltrated both the Republican and Democrat parties to dialectally direct the conflict toward predetermined outcomes.

DIALECTICALLY STAGED-OPPOSITION

Our existing situation has globalist GOP infiltrators and their unwitting enablers degenerating the GOP into staged opposition against their Democrat co-conspirators while hiding their true nature behind staged attacks against each other. Yes, these co-conspirators attack and damage each other publicly to maintain perception of opposition while the GOP infiltrators do it to maintain a veneer of trustworthiness.

They are exposed by their attempt to distract and fixate us on the mantra "beating Democrats" by having us elect GOP-posers who just destroy slower than Dems. And all the while, Republican posers having co-opted positions of leadership feeding GOP patriots a steady diet of repackaged globalist President(s) Bush-types sold to us as the ones who will save us from the Democrats also managed by globalists.

Additionally, EVEN WITHIN the GOP, these infiltrators engage in staged attacks to give cover to evil actors pretending to be patriots. I have observed many of those screaming loudly about RINOS, are themselves GOP infiltrators and enlightened humanists, all while claiming they are grassroots patriots. They hide behind a self-proclaimed undying loyalty to President Trump as a cover for their true nature.

This is why the court-appointed MIGOP chair was so proud of himself, that he made the motion to pass the God-offending GOP National Platform draft. Absent several previous components of the national platform, reinforcing that the GOP is the party of the Constitution and that the Constitution applies to unborn human life AT CONCEPTION. Additionally, there is ONLY an insignificant mention of the 2nd Amendment in the preamble. There is ZERO discussion in the body of the platform regarding policy positions the GOP will take to protect our 2nd Amendment rights, which our founders added to the Constitution to protect us and to put a healthy fear in aspiring tyrants.

As was reported by the platform committee, for the first time in history, they were prevented from seeing the platform prior to the platform committee meeting. A meeting where for the first time, no debate, and no amendments were allowed. Instead, the new RNC leadership forced their version of the platform onto the Platform Committee. We can not be silent about their conduct. Obedience to God, national survival, and the preservation of our children's freedom do not allow us to ignore this reality, because the RNC co-chair is President Trump's daughter-in-law, and President Trump supports this platform draft. My primary allegiance is to Jesus Christ, above any person or party.

We must also be aware, that many who are publicly expressing outrage over the GOP draft platform, are NOT doing so because they are Constitutionnalists. Many of these characters are funded by, and loyal to the same GOP imposters who have been moving the GOP closer to moral and constitutional relativism for decades. They are simply seizing on the opportunity this conflict regarding the platform has created, to discredit the influx of populism, which threatens their stranglehold on the GOP. Their outrage is fraudulent and opportunistic.

The conservative imposters who want to purge constitutionalist and uncompromising Christians from the party would like us to throw our hands up and roll over under the pretense of "it's required to beat Democrats." None of which is true.

Never.

We understand that the Republican Party is not a Christian organization and that it is "the party of the Constitution" protecting God-given unalienable rights even for those who don't believe in God and who are not Christians. However, it was Judeo-Christian defined morality that resisted British tyrants, founded America, and catalyzed the fight to stop slavery. Judeo-Christian defined morality as including the self-sacrifice of earthly security and human accomplishments are responsible for having made America great in the first place. Abandoning those principles will expedite tyranny already being brought upon our children and nation. Minimizing GOP opposition to the killing of the unborn places the GOP in direct conflict with God, who makes and breaks nations.

Any 'Christian leader' or 'Pro-Life leader' (yes there is a pro-life establishment, just look at the weak fight against Prop 3 in Michigan) supporting the unnecessarily edited platform draft is irrelevant. The existence of agreement does not ensure the existence of truth or righteousness. We must lawfully and peacefully self-sacrifice whatever is necessary to stop the injecting of the poison of moral and constitutional relativism in the GOP through the editing of its platform unnecessarily.

Moral absolutes can not be abandoned for political expediency. Nowhere in scripture did God have people engage in or support sin to fulfill His agenda.

The Republican Party platform must be amended to reflect that life begins at conception. Abortion is murder - though those guilty of it shall be forgiven if they ask God for forgiveness.

Sincerely,

Kristina Karamo

“And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell.” - Matthew 10:28

FYI, our court fight continues to lawfully remedy my illicit removal as MIGOP chair. We are currently before the Court of Appeals. Opposition to evil is a scripturally defined requirement, irrespective of whether that evil is committed by globalist operatives having infiltrated the GOP, or globalist operatives making the Democrat Party increasingly evil.

Let's lawfully eject globalist Republican posers and their unwitting enablers from GOP leadership to return the GOP to being "the party of the constitution." Let us be right before God and deliver usable God-given unalienable rights to our children.
